Absent: Kelsey Nauta, Megan Florio (Alt#1), Jennifer Duncan (Alt#2),

Approval of Minutes: June 20, 2022

Reports:

Baseball – No Report

Basketball – A discussion was held to discuss joining a league and the decision, at this time, was to remain independent. However, there is the possibility of setting up “cross-over” games . The flyer for the Fall Season has been submitted for approval.

Soccer - The turnout for Fall Soccer has been good and registration is almost full. As Liberty did not have enough players to field teams in grades 5-8, those registrations can be taken by Independence and no non-resident fees will be applied. The first game, in the eight-week schedule will be on September 10,2022.

Community Day - The Community Day flyer will be revised, and a separate schedule of events will be created, to be circulated and be set up on Community Day. Quotes for the Community Day activities (fireworks, amusements, magician, and portable toilets) have been submitted for approval to the Township Committee.

Rosenkrans Award - The Rosenkranz Awards have been finalized with winners determined. The awards have been ordered and preparations for presentation are underway.

Beach – The beach has opened for Summer Recreation and the public, as expected.

Summer Recreation – Summer Recreation opened on July 4th, as planned and with over 100 registrants.
